SEPTEMBER - 1963 VOL. 2 No. 6

THE TIDE HAS TURNED !

This bulletin has been delayed, but we believe that you can understand some of our "growing - pains". In addition, changes in some positions had to be worked out. For an organization in operation for such a short time, we believe that an impressive amount of progress has been made; our membership figures reflect it.

Obviously, some mistakes have been made; undoubtedly have hurt the feelings of some, too. But we're far from perfect - admittedly. The ACCA has expanded at such a rapid pace, it has been all but impossible to keep track of all of the evnts taking place at one time.

But with this issue, it should be obvious to all concerned that the ACCA is NOT about to be dissolved! In fact, we are rolling at "full speed ahead"!!!

In the next issue, the next installment of articles previously appearing will be continued. Other features will also reappear in the next and future issues.

So, if you had intentions of discontinuing your membership in the ACCA, you may want to reconsider after reading this issue .... at least, we hope that you will !!!

A SPECIAL MESSAGE ....

First, many thanks to those who responded to the plea for help published under Jim Johnson's column "Fair to Fine" in COIN WORLD. Our "thanks!" also go out to Jim Johnson, who has lent a hand in many ways, and to the other fine people of COIN WORLD.

Those who offered assistance in the form of membership should have received their cards by now. We were sorry to have to ask their patience during the recent reorganization and hope that they will enjoy their membership from here on.

A special expression of "thanks!" also goes to those members who volunteered to assume some of the official responsibilities of the ACCA. To those who volunteered but for whom we did not assign a function, goes our thanks with a note that we may ask them to serve at some future time.

The help which each person extends serves to lessen the work load of everyone. By spreading the work load among people in all parts of the country, we should be able to get an excellent picture of reactions on a country-wide basis. Thus, the ACCA can pass along news and views from all areas. As we expand to international levels, so will our services be increased and improved.

COMING UP.....

Announcement of the winning design, and the name of the person submitting it, in the ACCA emblem contest. WATCH FOR IT !!

DUTIES and RESPONSIBILITIES of OFFICERS and COMMITTEEMEN of the ACCA

Executive Board:

1 - To cast their vote, either in favor or disfavor, of any proposals presented.
2 - To voice an opinion when comments are requested.
3 - To make suggestions for possible improvements in functions and/or services.
4 - To make constructive criticisms of ideas and suggestions submitted to them.
5 - To always have the interests, aims, and purposes of the ACCA in mind, and to promote them at all times.

Publisher:

1 - To receive information from the Editor relative to any publication.
2 - To be responsible for the final format of the publication.

3 - To print the number of copies as specified by the Board, and by the means specified (i.e., mimeograph, off-set litho, etc.).
4 - To collate, staple, address, and mail the publications. Other forms of binding, and the addition of using envelopes, shall be as specified by the Board.
5 - In general, the responsibility for format shall include the arrangement of information according to editorial requirements.

Librarian:
1 - To report new additions to the Library to the Editor monthly for inclusion in the VOICE OF THE TURTLE.
2 - To supply a complete listing to the Editor yearly, for the same purpose.
3 - To loan items to members. Records of such loans must include:
a - Name and address of person to whom material is loaned;
b - Date material was loaned;
c - Date material was returned;
d - Description of material.
4 - To suggest new items to be added to the Library; this via the Board.
5 - To keep a record of all donations as apply to the Library. Such records are to include the name of the donor and date of donation along with a description of the donated material.

Research Committee:
1 - To supply information to members.
2 - To identify and/or authenticate items for members. Such work shall be limited to six (6) items per member per year. Members shall be requested not to misuse this service.
3 - To do research as specified by the

3 - To accept bids offered on lots in auction.
4 - To determine winning bids and to notify the winners. Items are to be forwarded to the bidder at this time for his inspection.
5 - To receive payment for lots sold, and to receipt the payment.
6 - To pay the seller the bid price LESS expenses (auction fee, postage, and, when applicable, identification/authentication/grading fees - these to become the property of the person doing the actual work.
7 - To account for all transactions and expenses of the auctions, and to make a monthly report thereof. Profits from auctions are to remain with the Auctioneer unless otherwise directed by the Board, and except for lots donated to the ACCA, in which case all proceeds, except postage and auction fees, are to be forwarded to the Treasurer. The Treasurer will place such funds in the general treasury unless otherwise specified by the donor. If the donor specifies that the proceeds are to be used for a specific purpose, such funds shall be credited to a fund for that purpose. Reports are to have copies routed to the President, Secretary, and Treasurer.

8 - To forward results of auctions to the Editor for publication.

Publicity Committee:
1 - To receive, from the Board, items for publicity purposes, and to promulgate such items to numismatic publications, which shall include the VOICE OF THE TURTLE, specified by the Board.

Public Relations Committee:
1 - To supply information requested by the Auctioneer. Such information might include "credit reference" checks.
2 - To supply information requested by the Nominations Committee. Such information might include "good standing" checks with other organizations of which the nominee might be a member, and, in the case of awards, background information needed to write a "letter of award".
3 - To work in conjunction with the Publicity Committee in publicizing the ACCA. This will include locating people to contact for publicity and other purposes.
4 - To process all applications for membership.
5 - To issue all membership cards.
6 - To receipt, over the Treasurer's signature (printed), all dues payments.
7 - To forward all dues payments to the Treasurer.
8 - To notify members, by statement billing, of dues payments required.
9 - To report, monthly, all changes in the membership rolls. Copies of such reports shall be issued to the President, Treasurer, and the Editor.

Awards Committee:

1 - To investigate recommendations for awards and report the findings to the Board.

2 - To obtain the type of award (certificate, plaque, trophy, etc.) as specified by the Board.

3 - To transmit the award, along with a "letter of award", to the receipent. The letter of award shall be signed by the President and the Chairman of the Awards Committee.

Nominations Committee:

DON'T .....

count to 10 .....

just remember that .....

officers and committemen of most clubs such as ours are UNPAID !!!!

Be thankful that they are willing to give up time for free .....

just to help Y - O - U !!!

Show your appreciation for their efforts by giving them your cooperation whereever possible, and by paying your dues promptly .....

A better organization will be ....

the result !!!

The VOICE OF THE TURTLE SPEAKS AGAIN !!

a message from the President .....

I hope you will realize that the dormancy of the TURTLE was the result of "growing-pains". The diagnosis shows that the pains were mainly caused by normal growth. The prescription for cure indicated that certain changes were necessary. I'm sure that you agree that there is no quick cure for anything, if the cure is at all worthwhile.

Therefore, during the interim in which you did not receive the TURTLE, your officers have been hard at work trying to accomplish the changes. Finding people to do a job was a real problem, but now is a lot better.

Within these pages, there is a list of the new appointments. You will note that the position of Editor is still vacant; I am "filling in" until it can be filled. I am hoping that the new Editor will be working on the next issue. Also, yet to be named are those who will serve on the Research Committee; those who would be willing should contact me directly.

So that all members may know what the duties and functions of each officer are, a list of same is included in this issue. Suggestions for changes are welcome.

I have no hope of solving all the problems at once, but if the membership will bear with me for a brief time. I'm sure that the ACCA will once more be well again ... and it will be bigger and better than ever !!!

COMMITTEES - How they Work for YOU.....

The Research Committee

One of the most important services which any organization can give their members is Identification/Authentication of any items which a member might come upon and not be able to identify by means of information in his possession. This is one of the services which will be rendered by the ACCA Research Committee. Other work will include special research as will be directed by the Executive Board. And still another service will be the implementation of a "Standard Grading System for Ancient and Medieval Coins.

Thus, the Research Committee has their work cut out for them. Now, all that is needed is people to do the work.

Therefore, so that the Research Committee as it is now staffed can do the bulk of the work, we are seeking people to serve as Research Committeemen. These Committeemen will serve to do identification/authentication only in their immediate area. In this manner, the ACCA will be able to give fast, efficient identification service to members. Any identifications which cannot be made by a Committeeman will be sent on to the Chairman of the Research Committee, who, having more to work with, will make final disposition of the request for identification/authentication.

If you would be willing to serve as a Research Committeeman, won't you please write to the President telling him how and in what area you would like to help.
